

Copycats!

twinkl

Aim

- I understand the term 'plagiarism' and how to avoid it.

Success Criteria

- I can explain how to use other people's work respectfully.
- I can explain what a citation is.
- I can write a citation.
- I can explain why plagiarism is harmful.

Your Amazing Ideas

Tell your partner when you last completed a piece of work you were proud of.

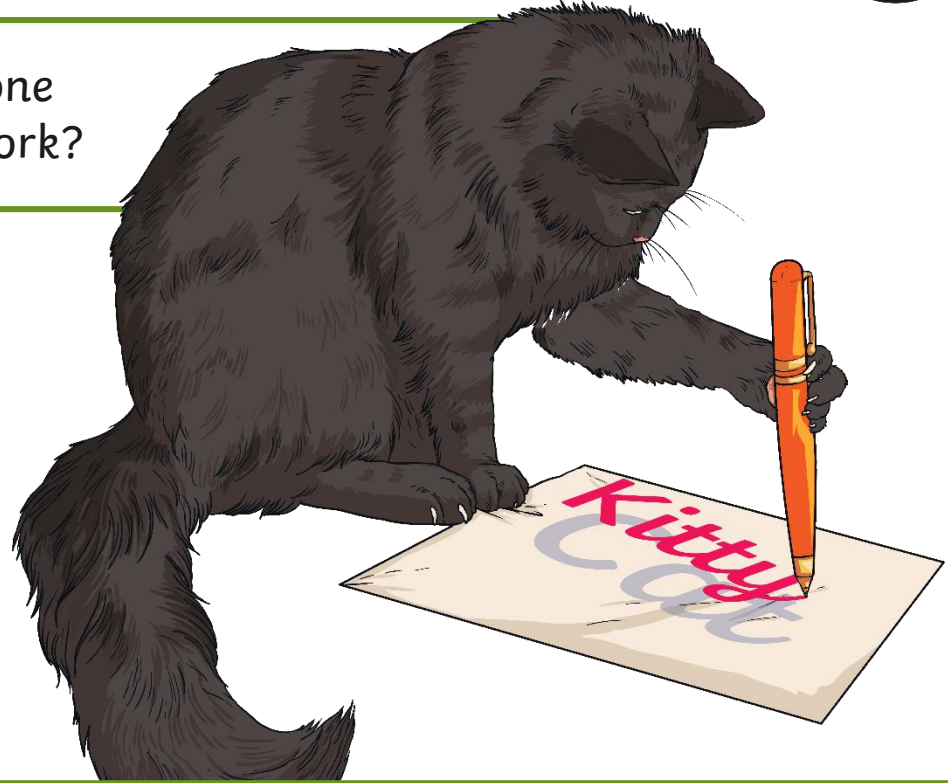

How do people know it belongs to you?

Your Amazing Ideas

How would you feel if someone wrote their name on your work?

What about if someone removed your name and put the work on display somewhere without giving you credit for it?

New Words

New Words

plagiarism

New Words

Use a dictionary to find the definition of this word and write it on the top of your Copycats! Activity Sheet.

Copycats!

Use a dictionary to find out what the word plagiarism means. Write its meaning below:

Complete the following:

The scenario on my card is: _____

Do you think your card shows an example of plagiarism? Why/why not?

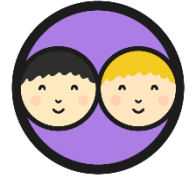

Now, find out what a citation is and write its meaning:

Get your partner to draw their best cat picture in the box, then write a citation for it below to give them credit.

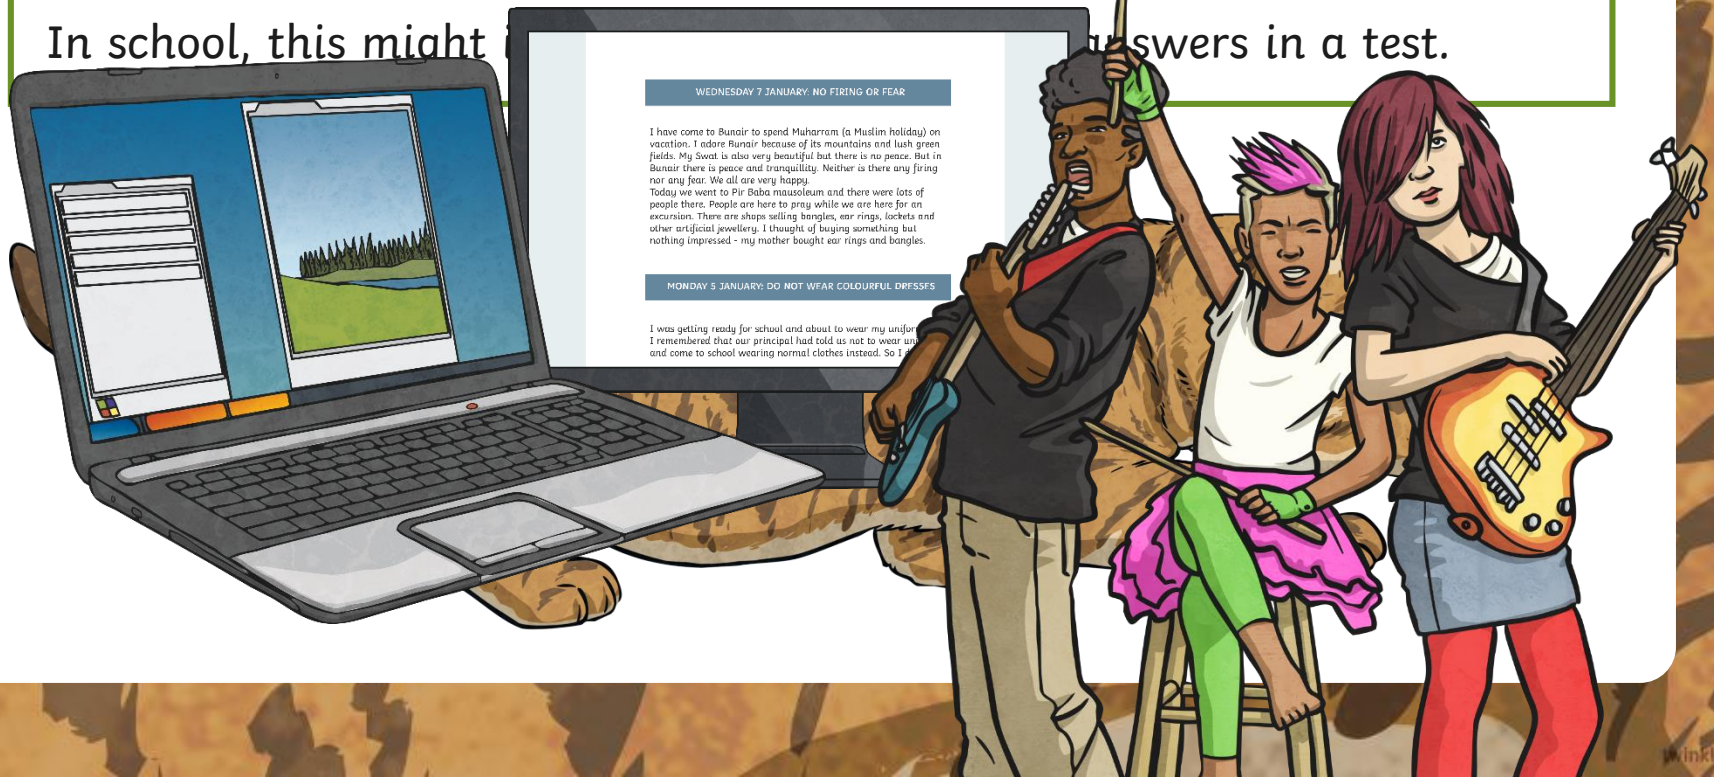

Citation: _____

Plagiarism

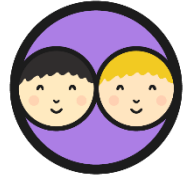

Online, plagiarism can be found everywhere. Photographers' pictures are used by other people, bloggers could have big pieces of their writing stolen and musicians could have their songs and videos copied and posted by others pretending it's them!

In school, this might look like copying answers in a test.

Plagiarism

Look at the scenario on your card and decide in your pair if it is plagiarism.

lovely word in a story or a certain style of painting may not be

Record your idea on your sheet.

Why Not?

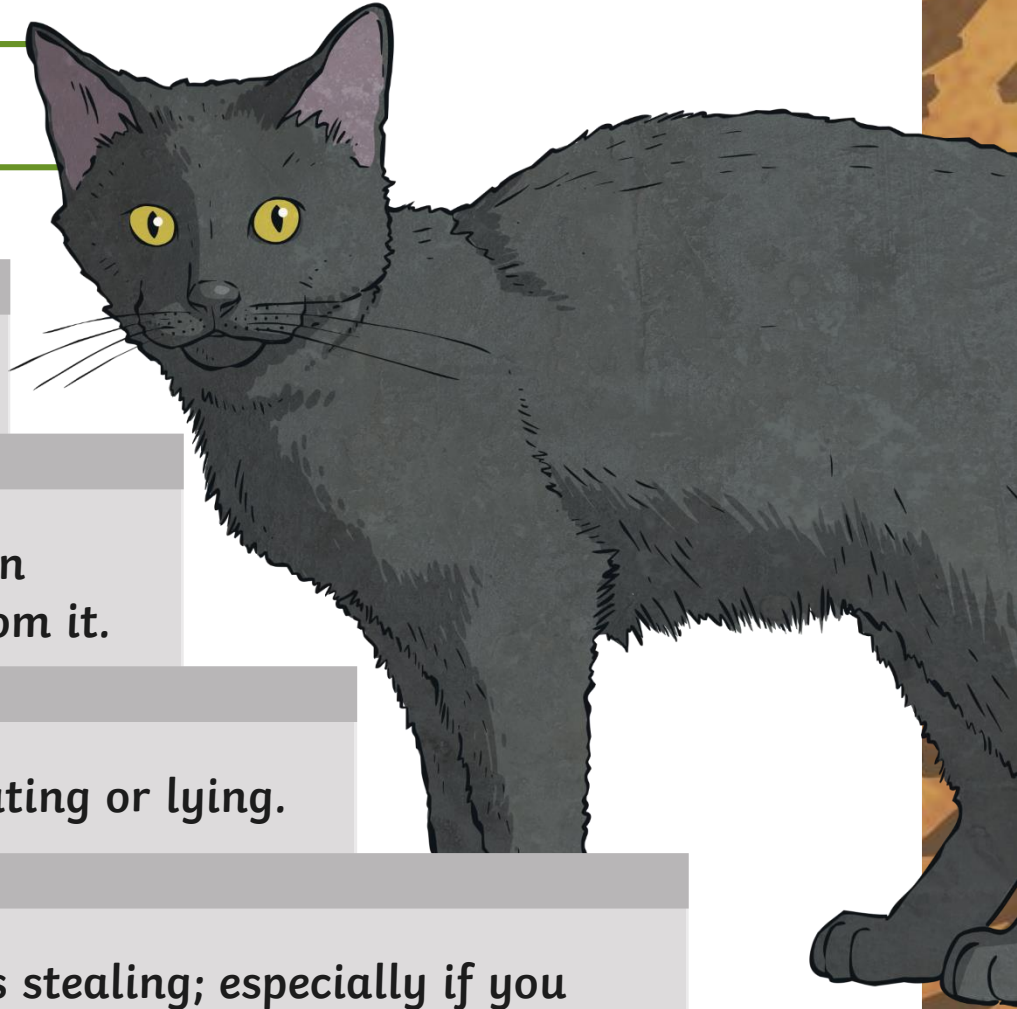

Why is plagiarism a bad thing?

The creator doesn't get recognition.

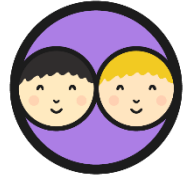

The plagiariser might earn recognition or even money from it.

It is the same as cheating or lying.

It is stealing; especially if you make money from it.

Be a Good Copycat!

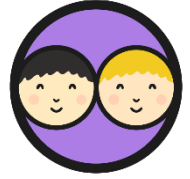

Sometimes, we might want to use somebody else's work for the right reasons. Then we can use a...

citation

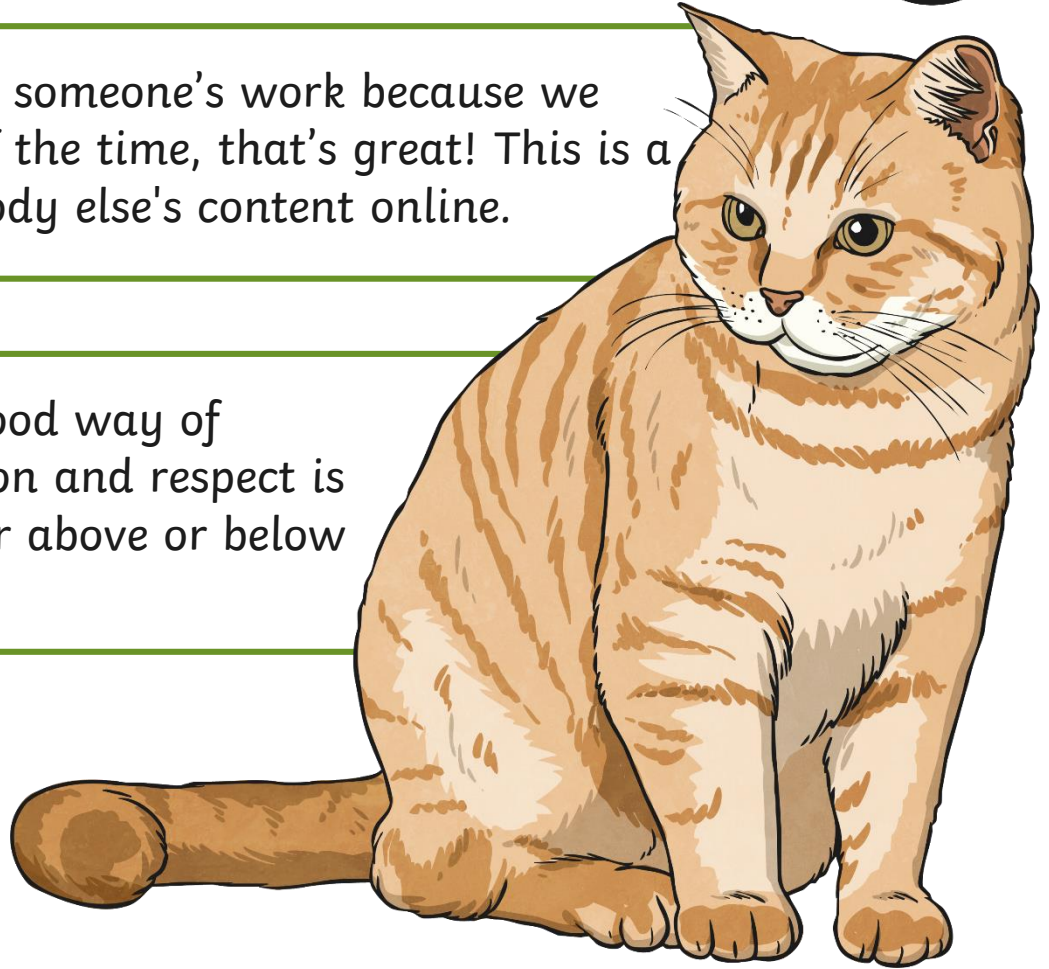

Find out what this means, then record it on your sheet.

Be a Good Copycat!

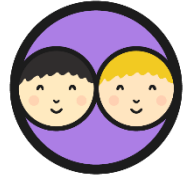

Sometimes, we want to use someone's work because we like it so much and most of the time, that's great! This is a good reason to post somebody else's content online.

If you want to do this, a good way of giving the person recognition and respect is by writing a citation, either above or below the work you have used.

Be a Good Copycat!

What do you think it is important to include in a citation?

