Fun in the Snow

Written by Catherine Baker
Illustrated by Neil Sutherland, Blue-Zoo and Tony Trimmer

The sun was out and O was very hot. S,N and W were feeling hot too.

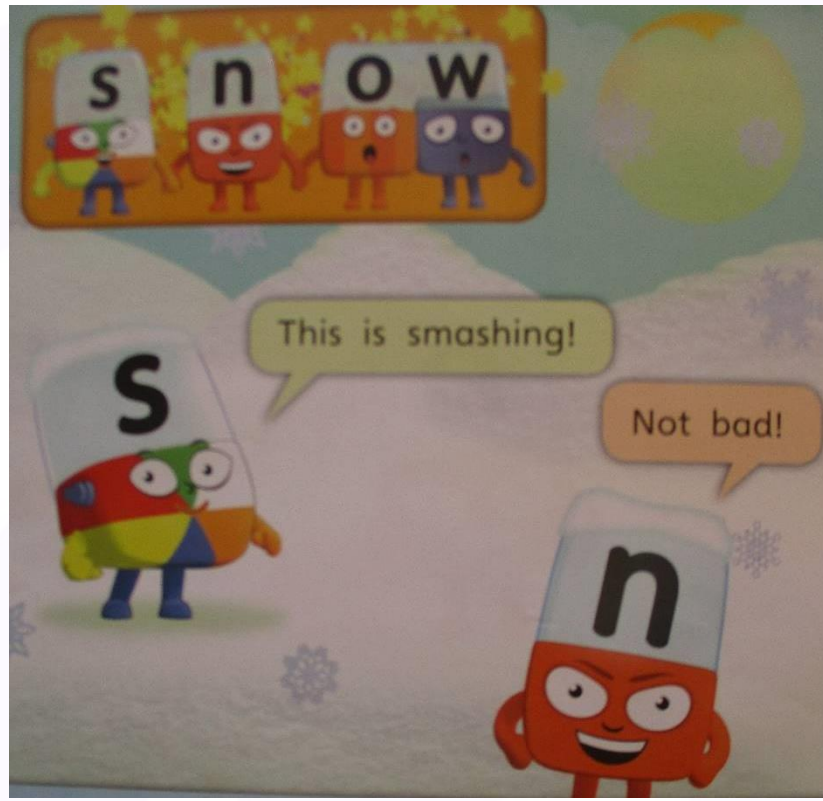

This heat is no fun!

Well, we can try to make it cooler.

I suppose so! Who will link up with me?

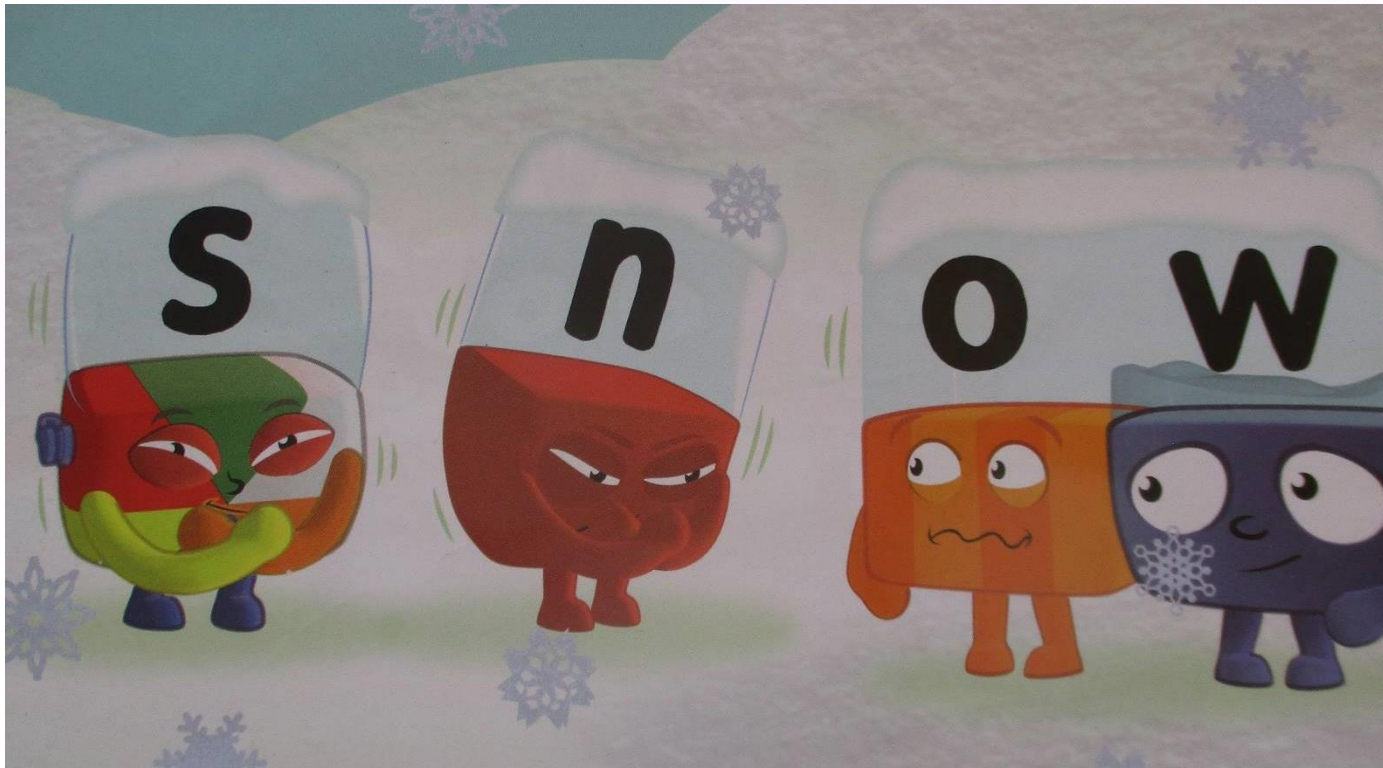

S-N-OW, snow!
Snowflakes began to drift down.

Soon there was snow all over the Alphablocks!

To start with, it felt good to be cool.
But then the Alphablocks began to feel chilly.

My nose is frozen!

So are my toes!

S had a good plan. “If we run up and down in the snow, we will not feel so chilly.”

So the Alphablocks began to play in the snow.

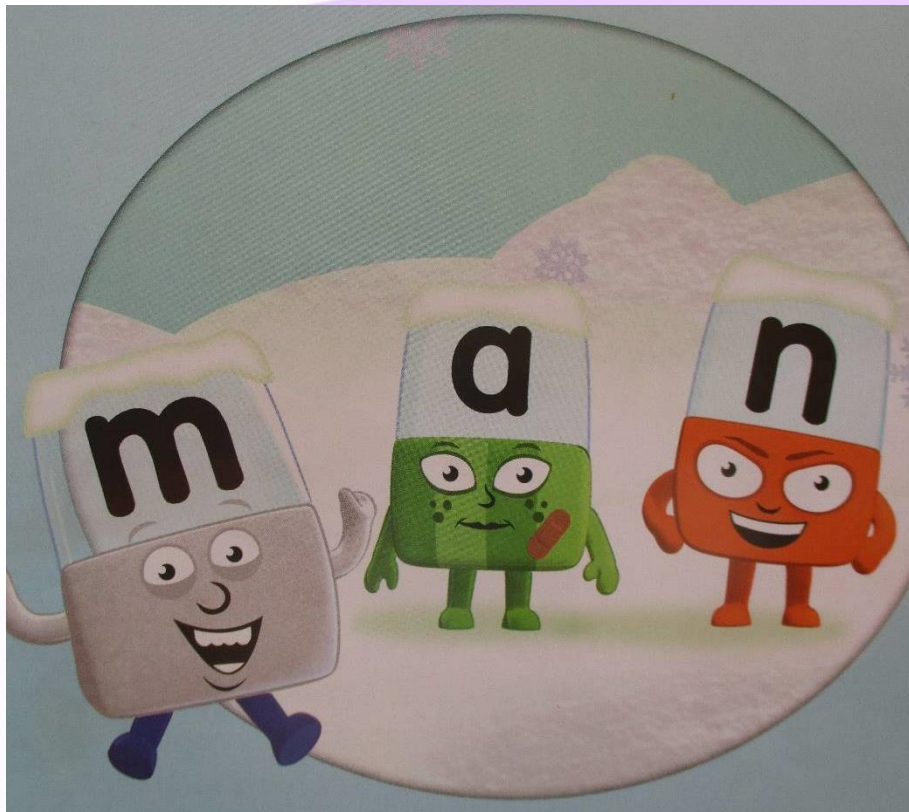

Lots of Alphablocks came to see what was happening.

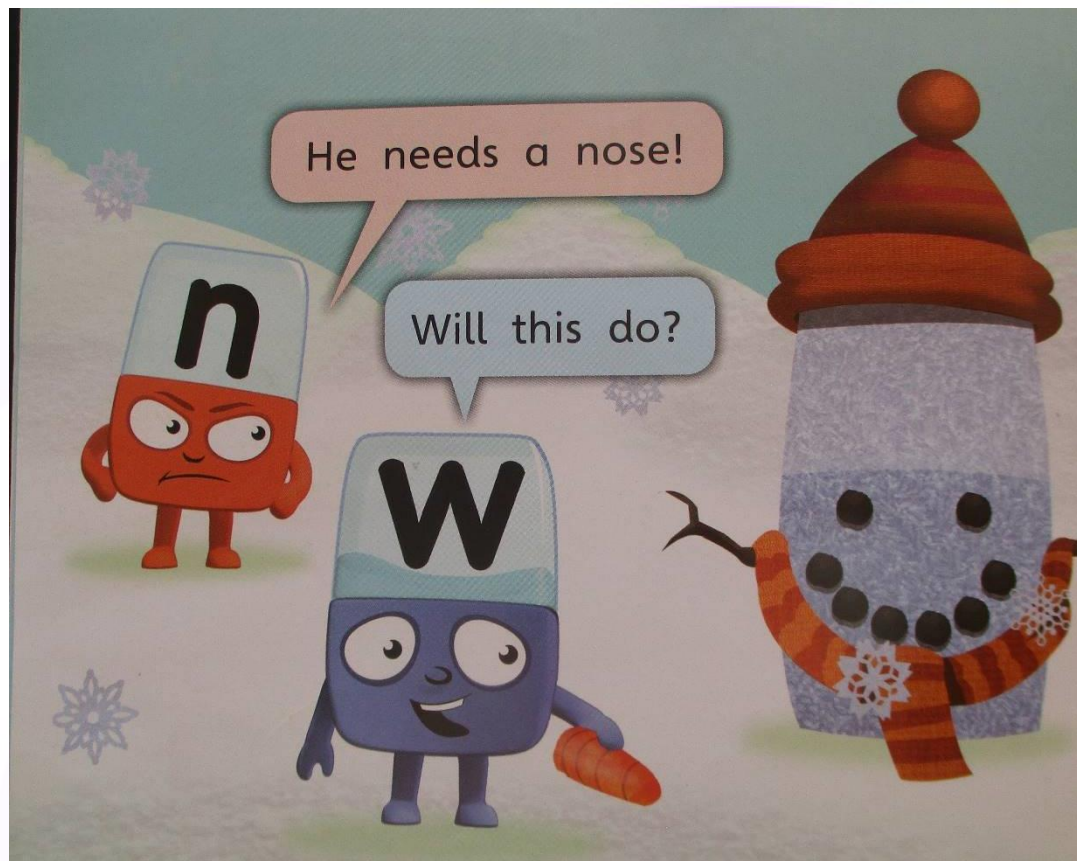

“Mmm...who will link up with me?” asked M. “We can make a snowman!”

s – n – ow – m – a – n,
snowman!

The Alphablocks had fun, but soon they began to feel chilly again.

T had a plan.
“Who will join me?” he said.

s — t — o — v — e, stove! The blocks felt better, but it was too hot for the snowman!
